LOAN ORIGINATOR CONTACT DATA

Product Overview

Loan originator contact data has been notoriously difficult to obtain from a single, reliable source... until now. We heard the requests from our clients over the year and are excited to provide you with access to the names, contact information, social media profiles and more, for loan originators across the country. Whether you want to improve your recruiting process, market your services, or enhance your offerings you can now get in direct contact with mortgage professionals.

What is NMLS Loan Originator Contact Data?

The National Multistate Licensing System (NMLS) serves as the licensing/registration agent for mortgage lenders and loan originators across the United States. The NMLS Unique Identifier is the number permanently assigned by the NMLS registry for each company, branch, and individual that maintains a single account on the NMLS. We've complemented our NMLS data set with Loan Originator Contact data so you can streamline your outreach to originators and start building relationships faster.
